—And the turnpike guide post is the trade mark of the National Biscuit Company. It points the way to the food of quality—biscuit and crackers so perfectly baked and properly protected; so cleanly packed and freshly kept, that they never fail to please in their mission to the appetite and heart.

This trade mark always appears in red and white. It is placed on each end of a dust and moisture proof package that keeps the contents in their original condition.

National Biscuit Company products are thus distinguished and warranted-you are thus protected and guided, in buying the most perfect of bakery products.

As an example try a package of GRAHAM CRACKERS, You will instantly recognize their superiority over any ordinary Graham crackers you ever tasted. They centain sil the good of the best Graham flour enhanced by perfect baking.

These are the correspondents in "Letters to Unsuccessful Men," our new series of razoredge humor and rip-saw philosophy (to appear bi-wec'ly) by the author of "Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son."

The first letter of the series appears in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST dated November 10. Jack, the prodigal, just expelled from Harvard, writes to his Uncle Bill about Monty the patriot, the boxing bear, and the songstress who had "a rush of grief to the feet"; and complains of his father who "is a fond parent all right, but it's money he's fond of."

Remarkable Resuits Following the Orrine Treatment.

There are but few families who have not one or more members afflicted with this terrible disease, for such it is. Will power alone cannot cure the drink habit, but the scientific Orrine treatment is a tested and absolute cure. This treatment the drink is not missed. We seek the worst cuses, and cure them with Orrine. It can be given secretly. Orrine is sold and guaranteed by Polik Miller-Childrey Co., First and Broad Streets.
